

5th Annual TEXAS HYDRO~GEO WORKSHOP Oct 5-7, 2018

Spend time in real-world field settings gaining valuable hands-on experience!

Sample Workshop Modules

- Collect data from water, soil, and rock
- Use field instruments (map, compass, GPS)
- Drill rig demonstrations
- Surface and borehole geophysical surveys
- Tracer testing
- Stream gauging
- Field safety
- GIS and ESRI Collector app
- Karst features evaluations
- Water level measurements
- and more

For Students, Practitioners, & Academics

The workshop provides the opportunity to work with leading researchers and practitioners from across the state and the nation for collecting, processing, and analysis of field data.

Location

Cave Without a Name, 325 Kruetzberg Road, Boerne, Texas
Camping sites are provided as part of the registration fee.

The workshop has sold out in past years - reserve your place early! Registration opens soon.

hydrogeoworkshop.org

Workshop Fee*
$60

*Early registration $50
At the door $60 space available